

Optimising The Wireless Presentation On Campus

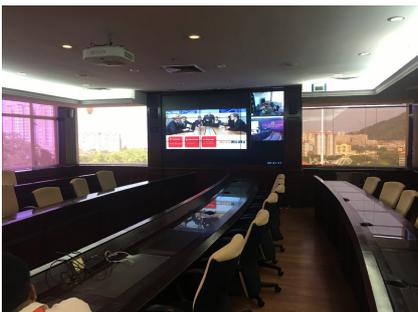

Communication and interaction between lecturers and students is crucial for teaching and learning activities. Over just a few years, the wireless presentation has emerged and developed into a preferred way to collaborate and enhance the teaching and learning process in the campus, learning space, labs, dan tutorials' room while increasing the iq and the productivity.

LectureH all

Presentation Made Easy

RecoMedia is a wireless presentation device which enables presenter to break free from any cable. It transforms display devices, such as projector and LED TV into a collaborative display for efficient meeting setup. It enables anyone to present content from a laptop, smartphone or tablet wirelessly to the display.

Main Conference Room

Meeting / Viva Room

Learning Space